ANNIVERSARIES CELEBRATED AT ST. JOHN'S ON JANUARY 20TH AT 11:A.M. MASS

As the smiling faces indicate, the brides and grooms of 25, 40, and 50 years ago, enjoyed the celebration of the anniversary of their marriages given in their honor by the Service Commission of St. John's Parish.

Shown above are Albina and John Iwaniec, Margaret and Clem Budinger celebrating their 40th, Vivian and George Rominski celebrating their 50th, and Clara and Leonard Husse also celebrating their 40th.

Silver Anniversarians included Kathleen and Chester Wysocki, Bernice and John Motto, Joanne and Leslie Craddick, John and Betty Jurinic, and Alberta and John Presensky.

Father David Harvey was the celebrant of the Mass, Eileen Tardiff and Margaret Meier were the facilitators of the day who did the background work to insure the smooth running of the celebration, Viola Smith and helpers, "Mom" Smith, Ida Frederick, Vera Clyne, Joan Pryce, Imelda Kerner, and Donnie Stokes were responsible for the reception following in the parish hall.

Special thanks go to those who attended to all the countless details that together make this a memorable occasion annually at St. John's.

BAPTISM CLASS FOR PARENTS

The next series of baptismal instructions will be held on THURSDAY, JANUARY 31st and FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8th. Both sessions will begin at 7:30 PM in the EDUCATION CENTER LIBRARY. Parents who have a newborn child or expectant parents who plan to have their child baptized at St. John's are kindly asked to attend both sessions. THE NEXT BAPTISMAL SUNDAY IF FEBRUARY 10, 1974 at 12:30 p.m. Please make pre-arrangements with Fr. Harvey at the rectory either in person or by phone.

CONVERT CLASS BEGINS ON TUESDAY

A new series of instructions in the Catholic Faith began on Tuesday evening, January 22 at 7:30 p.m in the Education Center Library. The class will hopefully conclude by Pentecost Sunday. There is still time to begin instructions this Tuesday.

IMPORTANT NEED

The INMATE REHABILITATION PROGRAM is looking for responsible men to serve as Auxiliaries in the Education Program at the County Jail. This involves a brief training period and then a commitment to attend classes at the jail with the inmates one evening a week during the 11-week semester.

For more information, contact Molly or Marta at 662-5661.

January 4, 1974

To: Parishioners of St. John's
From: Rev. Mr. Kenneth Grodzicki

For some time now many of the members of St. John the Baptist church have been expecting an announcement in regard to my vocation. After spending a one-year internship among you, I was sent to St. Joseph's Church in Howell and functioned as a deacon for another year.

A week ago I met with our bishop, Alexander Zaleski. At that time I announced my resignation from the deaconate and from any further consideration for the priesthood. This action may come as a surprise. Some will surely ask why. To them let it simply be said that I was disappointed with the service I found myself able to render.

Of course, the immediate consequence of this action is that I will leave the ministry Accordingly, I would like to take this opportunity to thank so many of you for welcoming me into your parish, into your homes and into your lives. I will remember many of you and hope that many will do the same.

May faith be with you and may you live out what you proclaim to be.

Sincerely yours,
Rev. Mr. Kenneth Grodzicki

Although Ken has made a decision which only he could have made and not without a type of suffering which such decisions demand, we are indebted to the self he shared with us so generously over the period of a year as a deacon intern here.

I am confident that you will continue to remember him and pray in the one Spirit for Ken's future success and fulfillment as he continues to seek the opportunity which will allow him to share the many gifts he has been given.

--Fr. Harvey

IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

Edward J. Daniels

The prayers of our community are requested for the family of Mr. Edward J. Daniels who died suddenly at his home on Sunday evening at the age of 50.

The Daniels had been parishioners of our parish for many years until their recent move to Ann Arbor, Ed is survived by his wife, Virginia, three sons, Tom, Eddie and Bobby and four daughters, Mrs. Dennis (Debbie) McCarthy, Mrs. Richard (Diane) White and Maureen and Patty at home.

As members of this parish, the Daniels' family were active participants in the life of this community. Ed was past president of the Dads' Club, a member of the St. John's School Board and the Executive Committee.

The Mass of Christian Burial was concelebrated in our church on Wednesday morning, January 23, 1974. Among the concelebrants were Fr. Marvin Young, Fr. William King, Fr. Donald Clark, Fr. James Kunes, Fr. Robert Kerr, Fr. Patrick Jackson and Fr. David Harvey. Burial followed in St. John's Cemetery.

"Look to this day. For it is life;
The very life of life. In its brief course
Lie all the verities and realities of your existence;
the bliss of growth,
the glory of action,
the splendor of beauty
For yesterday is but a dream,
and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today well lived, makes every yesterday
a dream of happiness
And every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Know well, therefore - to this day.
Such is the greeting of each new dawn."

May Ed share the reward of his love and his labor.

ATTENTION PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION WHILE AT PUBLIC SCHOOL!

On Monday, January 28, you will be starting a new semester at public school. Have you considered including religion classes into your school schedule this semester.

By a Released Time Law (1964) the State of Michigan has encouraged parents to provide for the religious education of their children in public schools. It is not true that American Public Schools are out to exclude religion from education. It is only because of our tradition of separation of Church and State that our public schools can provide a religion curriculum only through released time, that is, the churches are to provide the classes, while the public school provides the school time.

During the first semester some 130 public high school students have been taking religion in this way at St. Thomas High School. Busses pick students up at school, and take them to St. Thomas for a two hour block of time, once each week.

The Program is called A. R. Ed. (Area Religious Education) since it includes high school students from three area school districts. IF you are in grades nine, ten, eleven, or twelve, you can qualify. To register, call the A.R. Ed. Office 761-7656. If you have any special concerns speak to Fr. Fedewa at this number.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES OF WASHTENAW COUNTY GOOD SAMARITAN ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

We know you received an envelope for your yearly contribution to the Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County. If you have not made your contribution, please do so today. The question at this point is how are your dollars being spent?

"I need help!" calls are received at the Agency hourly, and your dollars provide skilled professionals to give these people the help they need. Since its beginning, the Agency has been dedicated to providing help where needed. . .strengthening the individual. . .preserving the family. . .helping the poor and underprivileged. . .and enhancing the well being of the community. Did you know that the Agency is responsible for care of hundreds of children each year? These children are in agency foster homes for either long or short periods of time depending upon the nature of the problem. Multiply the cost of caring for one child by 300 and you will know why your help is needed. Did you know that the Agency functions around the clock and helps people day and night? Your Catholic Social Services really means it when it says "help" is available around the clock.

CATHOLIC WEEKLY SUBSCRIPTIONS

If you wish to continue as a weekly subscriber or desire to become a new subscriber to the weekly newspaper serving the Diocese of Lansing, please complete the special envelope which came in the January mailing and return by the end of this month.

PRAYERFUL REMEMBRANCE

. . .asked for Pauline Watson, John Adams, Celina Sanford's father, Mr. Ninotti and Kerim Sesi who are hospitalized.

THANK YOU WOMEN OF THE PARISH

The response to the call for women to assist in caring for the altars and sanctuary was very, very gratifying. There are about 30 women from St. John's who clean in groups of three every seventh month, women who sew baptismal garments given infants & adults when they are baptized, women who make altar cloths, women who launder the altar linens and altar boy cassocks, and still others who help with sewing or with flowers.

There is still a need for substitute laundresses. If interested please call Betty Vargo at 483-0393 or Margaret Budinger at 482-6370.

ANN ARBOR FAIR AND SALE

The Good Samaritans Auxiliary of Catholic Social Services proudly announces the 7th annual Ann Arbor Fair and Sale to be held this year at the Holiday Inn West on Jackson Ave., Ann Arbor, on Thursday, March 28th from 11 to 9, on Friday, March 29 from 11 to 9, and on Saturday, March 30th from 11 to 6.

We are most enthusiastic over plans for this year's show. . .it promises to be an outstanding one.

Pre-Sale tickets will soon be on sale at $1.50 with the door price at $1.75. Keep looking here for more detail and do include this show on your March calendar for something really great to do!

TO SHARE IS TO LIVE

PRE–MARITAL SEMINARS AT HOLY TRINITY CHAPEL-

Contemporary man must live in the world of Future Shock with its conflicting beliefs and attitudes about the nature of man, human sexuality, human relationships, marriages and family life.

The purpose of these seminars is to assist engaged Christian couples, in a group situation with other like couples, to examine these areas of life, and to crystalize their own beliefs and attitudes.

The approach includes information, but focuses primarily on exploration of "we" the engaged couple in a climate of inquiry and growth. The seminar leaders, through their life's experiences and training, aid couples to be better prepared for marriage.

PROGRAM A is a somewhat intensive (not sensitivity) seminary extending from Friday night to Sunday afternoon. The couples must be willing to explore themselves honestly in the small group experiences provided.

The willingness to be personally involved in the seminar group makes this an excellent immediate preparation for marriage.

Couples must attend the total seminar.

Cost is $12.00 per couple.

PROGRAM B does not aim toward intensive self-searching, but combines information with some exploration of beliefs and attitudes in small group discussions.

The seminar is held on a Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Couples should attend both days.

Cost is $8.00 per couple.
